

Question: What is the capital of New Zealand?

Answer: Wellington

Question: There are six airports in the metropolitan area of London. Name three of them.

Answer: City, Heathrow, Gatwick, Luton, Stansted, Southend

Question: In 1995 the Indian city of Bombay was renamed to...?

Answer: Mumbai

Question:
What is the official currency in the Republic of Ireland?

Answer: euro

Question: South Africa has three capitals. Name two of them.

Answer: Pretoria, Cape Town, Bloemfontein

Question: The famous Mount Rushmore National Monument in South Dakota features the heads of four former U.S. presidents. Name three of them

Answer: George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt

Add the correct question tag:
"You have a car, ...?"

Question tag::
"..., don't you?"

Question: New York City has five boroughs (Regierungsbezirke). Name three of them.

Answer: Manhattan, Bronx, Queens, Brooklyn, Staten Island

Question: What are the members of New Zealand's indigenous population called?

Answer: Maori

Question: What is the name of the building for the meetings of the British Parliament?

Answer: Palace of Westminster

Question: The British prime minister lives in house number 10 of which street?

Answer: Downing Street

Question:
What amount of money is a nickel?

Answer: 5 cents

Question: What is a John Hancock

Answer: a signature

Question:

This year's Super Bowl was won by the Kansas City Chiefs. In which state are they based?

Answer: Missouri

Question: What is a Benjamin?

Answer: a 100 dollar note

Question: Laverbread, which is made of seaweed, is a specialty of which country?

Answer: Wales

Question: What is a tinny in Australian English?

Answer: a can of beer

Question: In which sport do you use the terms "love" and "deuce"?

Answer: Tennis

Question: Who is featured with a monument at Trafalgar Square in London?

Answer: Rear Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson

Question: Where was William Shakespeare born?

Answer: Stratford-upon-Avon

Question: Can you spell satellite correctly?

Answer: S A T E L L I T E

Question: What is a quid?

Answer: A slang word for the British pound sterling.

Question: Can you spell Mississippi correctly?

Answer: M I S S I S S I P P I

Question: What is 'sterling'?

Answer: The British currency of which the pound is the main unit.