Good Girls Don't Die, p. 235 - 249 (chapter 3)

1. What do Maggie and her team do to protect themselves against the land mine threat?
2. Which of the women finds a mine, and what is she afraid of?
3. What kind of observation do the women make when moving ahead after the mine incident? What is the conclusion they draw?
4. When thinking about Natalie, "Maggie could see ... all dotted i's and crossed t's." What does this mean?
5. What kind of noise ends the discussion of Maggie's team, and what has happened to # 9?
6. How does the chapter end, and how much time do they have left then?
