One By One, p. 153 - 169, (chapters 23, 24, 25)

1. "He sees me and Noah holding hands, then he (Jack) does a double take".
What does it mean?
2. What do Jack and Warner come across on their way ahead?
3. What assumption of Noah does Jack confirm when they are getting ready for another night in the forest, and what explanation does Jack have for it?
4. What do we learn about Jack's affair with Claire?
5. What does Claire remember from the first time she met Michelle?
6. What is Warner's suggested means of navigating for the next day?
7. What does Claire wake up after a good night's sleep?
