

Troublesome Translations (page 17)

Its or it's?

1. She said it's only a fifteen-minute drive, so we should be there before 4 p.m.
2. Tennis has lost its appeal for Janice because of her arthritis.
3. It's become very difficult to find a parking spot near the library since it moved to its new location.

Look, see or watch?

1. Come and look at this photo that Stefan just sent me. I look terrible!
2. The cat likes to sit on the windowsill to watch what's happening in the garden.
3. Has anyone seen my glasses?
I'm blind without them!