Holes, p. 105 - 115

1. How many days has Stanley been in the camp at Zigzag's birthday?
What date is it and how many holes has he dug?
2. Why and in what way does the situation escalate before the lunch break?
3. How does the fight between Stanley and Zigzag end?
4. What kind of advantage, according to the Warden, can the boys take from digging holes?
5. What, on the other hand, does Stanley believe is the Warden's motivation for having the boys dig?
6. What does the Warden instruct the counsellors to do after Zero has left the camp?
