

8th/1st unit, 28 April 2026

The Tenant,
chapters 42, 43, 44 (p. 227 - 239)

1. “All I had for lunch was a bag of chips from the convenience store”.
What is a convenience store?

2. When Blake is enjoying Krista’s cookies in his car, what is it that he is concerned about?

3. What story does Ms Cross tell Blake about Whitney?

4. What did Whitney steal from her mother and what did she do with these items?

5. Where did Whitney go when she left her parents’ house and why did her mother know that she had returned to the States six years later?

6. Who does Blake recognise on the family photo on Ms Cross’ mantelpiece?

7. Who did the cut-off fingers belong to?

8. What kind of message, written on a piece of paper, does Blake find in his pocket?